One More Week of DeWolf Hopper at the Broadway.

Manager Ben Stevens of the Hopper Opera Company, announces the closing performance of Sydney Rosenfeld's comic-opera "The Lady or the Tiger," at the Broadway Theatre, New York city, which series commenced on last Monday evening. A special matinee was given on Election Day, and on Thursday evening, the "Nobles of Mecca" gave one of their pleasant Shrine theatre parties, which the committees of arrangement designated "Mythic Shrine Night." The boxes and lobbies of the theatre were liberally and tastefully festooned with Arabian and Turkish flags, crescents, claws and other emblems of the order was utilized in the decorations and an immense illuminated sign with the word "Mecca" in letters of fire, graced the crown of the stage proscenium arch. The Shrine, resplendent in dress-suit and fez, attended the performance in a body, and Mr. Hopper sang appropriate verses in his topical song "On Very Good Terms With Himme" while the necessary local lines befitting the occasion, were supplied by Sydney Rosenfeld.

Due to "Wang's" great popularity with all classes of New York theatre-goers, and in deference to the written and orally-expressed wishes of many of the Broadway patrons, Mr. Hopper has decided to again present Goodwin and Morse's jolly burlesque next week, which is the last of his present engagement. The final presentations are positively announced in the Metropolis, for at the close of his road season—which will be inaugurated at the Academy of Music, Brooklyn, on November 21st—the comedian will shelve "Wang," and at the beginning of his return engagement at the Broadway Theatre next spring, he will present a new opera by the same author and composer.

A Point For You.
In view of what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for others, is it not reasonable to suppose that it will be of benefit to you? For Scrofula, Salt Rheum, and all other diseases of the blood, for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Loss of Appetite, That Tired Feeling, Catarrh, Malaria, Rheumatism, Hood's Sarsaparilla is an unequalled remedy. Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Lauter's Journal of Music.

The November issue of this publication comes to us filled with many good things, and is particularly interesting. "Besides Me," "I Cannot Tell You Why," "For Ever Faithful," are the songs contained in the vocal department. "La Sorellina," an Italian Waltz, by H. L. D'Arcy Jaxone, fills the entire instrumental portion of the paper. This waltz has had a very extensive sale and is extremely popular. Its appearance in the Journal is quite welcome. The Monthly may be obtained free upon application at the piano and organ warehouses of S. D. Lauter Co., 657 and 659 Broad Street, Newark.

Useful Women.

Every woman who can keep a house in order and her temper unruffled, and thus promote the happiness of her household, has great possibilities within her grasp. She may have but one servant, or she may employ none. In either case her executive ability is constantly called into action, and never fails to develop and fit her to enter into more useful and wider fields if circumstances are disposed to let down the bars. To their credit be it said, all such women buy and wear James S. Coward's Common Sense Shoes at 270 and 272 Greenwich Street, New York.—Advt.

"I would like to sound the praise of Hood's Sarsaparilla over the entire universe," writes Mrs. Longenecker of Union Deposit, Penn.—Advt.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, and all Throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellow-men. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. A. Noyes, 220 Power's Block, Rochester, N. Y.—Advt.

Appearances.

No young man who would get on in this world can afford to neglect appearances. The apparel, says the greatest of philosophers, oft proclaims the man. Note the ease with which the well dressed, prosperous looking man gets an audience. As a business investment good clothes pay.

The outside of clothes is seen most, of course. But the inside has as much work to do. We divide our attention, or rather we put as much care and thought on the inner as we do on the outer surface of our garments. Both parts wear out together, not one before the other. It is this intrinsic merit, the goodness of all the component parts of true-worthy clothes that gives our customers the satisfactory feeling of being well dressed at all times.

NEW YORK.

IN CHANCERY OF NEW JERSEY.

By virtue of an order of the Court of Chancery of New Jersey, made on the day of the date hereof, in a cause wherein Willard and Leonard Richards are complainants and you and others are defendants, you are required to appear and plead, demur, or answer to the complainant's bill on or before the second day of January next, or the said bill will be taken as confessed against you.

This said bill is filed to foreclose a mortgage given by John G. Schenck and Sarah M. his wife to Sarah G. Richards, and assigned by said Sarah G. Richards to Willard and Leonard Richards, said mortgage bearing date July 11, 1889, and recorded in book M. 3 of mortgages for Somerset County, New Jersey, on page 361, etc., to secure the payment of fourteen thousand dollars with interest on certain premises situate lying and being in the township of Branchburg, in the County of Somerset, New Jersey.

And you John G. Schenck are made defendant because in said bill it is alleged that you hold a mortgage upon the above mentioned premises made to you by John G. Schenck and Sarah M. his wife dated January 18, 1890, and recorded in book 2, No. 3, of mortgages for Somerset County, New Jersey.

The New Piccadilly Overcoat.

There has been such a sameness in Overcoats for some years that an entirely new garment is sure to become immensely popular and make "back numbers" of all the old shapes.

The NEW PICCADILLY OVERCOAT that we show in all our Broad and Market Street windows is now the swell garment in upper trade circles, and while we may be the only house to show them this season, will be wanted by everybody next year.
